

the wine

The Book says “the apple tempted eve”, our book says, “it must have been the grape”.

frivolous, intense, sexy, dirty, crisp, full-bodied, light-bodied, fruity, earthy, cherry, blackberry, grapefruit, apple, dry, oaky.
we could fill this page with descriptors used for the juice, and it would only be the beginning...

from wines that pair naturally with food...
to the wines that are the show...
from here and around the world...

food & wine

contrasts are a beautiful thing:

i.e. complex with simple, spicy with sweet, salty with fruity.

but sometimes birds of a feather:

i.e. tangy with tangy, earthy with earthy, sweet with sweeter.

have fun with this, as rules are meant to be...

corkage policy

no corkage on the first 750ml bottle—if we don't carry that special wine, bring it in.

explore

if you would like a taste of any wine we offer by the glass, just ask.

the point:

sniffing, sipping, tasting, quaffing...

malbec

the most widely planted grape in argentina is grown in just about every other corner of the world as well, only it generally finds itself a player in a blend, rather than the main stage attraction...malbecs tend to be medium to full-bodied affairs with ample tannins and dark, plummy fruits...

cabernet sauvignon

this grape provides the backbone to many great and famous wines—some might call cabernet sauvignon the king of grapes...or at least the most popular... well-structured with silky, juicy black fruit, its classic flavor profile includes firm tannins, cassis, bing cherry, plenty of oak, spicy cedar scents with hints of mint.

bordeaux-style

outside of france, wines fashioned in the style of bordeaux are sometimes called 'meritage' blends, or 'clarets'...(both words, generally, mispronounced)...

it doesn't really matter what the label says, so long as they employ the traditional grapes of cabernet sauvignon, merlot, cabernet franc, petit verdot & malbec.

below are wines exclusively using 2 or more of these grape varietals.

the ancient greeks planted vines in provence 2,500 years ago...(but that might have only been because it was so convenient to their favorite beaches)...grenache, carignan and cinsaut are the major players, but there's plenty of mourvèdre (especially in bandol), syrah and cabernet sauvignon as well...

languedoc-roussillon

last time we counted, the languedoc-roussillon was the largest wine-growing region in the world, accounting for about two billion (yes, billion) bottles a year...

generalizing such a vast area would be foolhardy, however what can be said is that a lot of creative people producing some really wonderful, original wines here...

carignan, cinsault, grenache, syrah and mourvèdre are the major grapes, but cabernet sauvignon and merlot are proven here as well...

italy is responsible for about one-fifth of the world's wine production. (which comes to about 8 billion bottles a year, give or take...) no other country on earth has the variety of indigenous grape varietals as found in italy, either. (several hundred have been "officially" cataloged...) and take into consideration over 4,000 years of winemaking history, it's a wonder...a sometimes confusing wonder...so we've split things up a bit, according to region...

northeast

the veneto traditionally gets all the press in the northeast, and for good reason...with the famous whites as well as the most famous of reds—amarone—there is a lot to enjoy...however, the quality wines emerging from its neighbors is worth a look for certain...

when images of italy float through our heads, we picture the tuscan villa backdrop and a bottle of chianti... tuscany is the undisputed home of sangiovese, where it is the backbone of chianti and the engine of brunello...

but don't forget that central italy also includes the region of abruzzo, with its sun-drenched montepulciano grape...

apéritif . stimulate your appetite

lillet blanc . 7

since its creation in 1887, lillet is the only apéritif made in bordeaux...it's a blend of wine, fruit liqueurs, fruit and fruit peels aged for up to one year in oak... try it on the rocks with a twist of orange or lemon...

kopke dry white port . 6 white port? yes, indeed-give it a go on the rocks with a splash of soda... it might be your new favorite...

dolin dry vermouth de chambéry . 7

dolin was founded in 1821, and has been using the same recipe ever since... by using quality wine from the savoy, and a mixutre of 54 plants and herbs found in the meadows above chambéry, they create a distinctively light, floral and elegant vermouth suitable for sipping on the rocks...really...it's not just for martinis...

vya extra dry vermouth . 7

the genesis of vermouth dates back to the 1700s...consider andrew quady's modern update a re-birth...It will elevate a martini, for certain-though enjoyed simply on the rocks is the best way to experience its beguiling mixture of floral, herbal and citrus flavors...

campari . 8

more than sixty ingredients go into this rather bracing beverage. order it on the rocks with a slice of orange, or ask us to make you a negroni...

aperol . 7

similar in aroma and flavor to campari, aperol is lighter in color and contains just 11% alcohol by volume – almost half that of campari...

punt e mes sweet vermouth . 4

punt e mes means 'point and a half' in italian. its name is said to commemorate a sudden rise in the stock market which greatly benefitted the carpano distillery. dark brown in color, it has a strong, distinctive flavor often described as half-way between a traditional rosso vermouth and campari.

dolin sweet vermouth . 6

think you don't like vermouth? try dolin. with its own aoc certification, its production is held to strict standards - similar to the fine wines of france. sweet on the attack, it finishes with elegance and a lovely herbaceousness.

averna . 9

carpano 'antica' . 8

fernet-branca . 8

twenty-seven herbs picked in four continents and aged in oak for a year, this grape-based digestif is a little hard to pin down...it is as much a revitalizing medicine as it is a beverage—but be warned: it's not so subtle...

green chartreuse . 10

the recipe for this distinct liquid is known by only three chartreuse monks who oversee its production and maturation. it's said that over 130 different plants are used...some like it neat, but we find it most pleasing on the rocks

pastis . 8

when absinthe was banned in france 1915, pastis was created...add a little sugar... add a little water...

pacifique absinthe . 15

but if you'd like to do the real thing, the 95 year ban on absinthe has been partially lifted...please keep in mind, however, that it is still listed by the DEA under the nomenclature of "drugs and chemicals of concern"...

cocktail #1: the old fashioned really—it's one of america's oldest cocktails...your great-grandfather used to drink them at the pendennis club in louisville...and yet, when's the last time you tried one? we'll make you one with maker's mark or basil hayden's.

cocktail #2: the martini

take your pick of gin (I like hendricks) or vodka (take the monopolowa for a spin), but be forewarned: your martini will have a dose of vermouth, as was intended by those that created it...and, well, vermouth is fortified wine...and this is a wine bar...

cocktail #3: the manhattan

ok...so rumor has it that the manhattan was invented at a party hosted by winston churchill's mother...it really must have been quite a party...bourbon, bitters and sweet vermouth shaken and strained...

cocktail #4: the rob roy

if you take your manhattan and trade bourbon for scotch, you've got a rob roy. historically, rob roy is known both as folk hero and an outlaw...we prefer you sip on one of these and aspire to the former.

cocktail #5: the sidecar

the history of this drink involves an american army captain in paris during world war one who was astute enough to always arrive and depart the bar via motorcycle sidecar...we like to make ours with metaxa.

cocktail #6: the negroni

feeling a little bitter? well, bitterness loves company, and there is no better bitter way to cleanse one's palate than a helping of camillo negroni's favorite florentine beverage...seriously...it's not for the faint of heart, and it is better than brushing your teeth.

cocktail #7: the sazerac invented in new orleans just about 150 years ago...in fact, some trace the name "cocktail" to the very glass used to serve the original sazerac...which means that if you want to get back to your roots, order a sazerac immediately. We prepare our sazeracs with old overholt straight rye, by the way, and if you've never had one: it's like a costume party in a glass.

wine cocktails

$9 each

cocktail # 8: the harvest fizz

gewürztraminer, bellringer gin and austrian orchard pear liqueur...perfect way to prepare you for the snowy slopes.

cocktail #9: the montoya

a movie character that is forever etched in our mind. rich and exotic spanish brandy, argentina malbec and a splash of pedro ximénez.

cocktail #10: di mora

our wine director's favorite...she insisted on this...bourbon, cabernet sauvignon, fernet branca (yes, it will soothe your belly) and muddled blackberries.

cocktail #11: the thymless kiss you will not find this anywhere else...yet. riesling is the base here with fresh thyme, lemon and green chartreuse.

cocktail #12: the karmic sour

this cocktail is designed to give you goose pimples...hopefully, it will. chai-infused syrah, pisco (peruvian un-aged brandy), lime, egg white and black pepper.

cocktails with bubbles

$10 each

the classic champagne cocktail

people will argue about the true recipe...fact is, the bartenders that started calling their creations “champagne cocktails” aren’t around to testify, so we’re going with the old stand-by—bitters, sugar, and bubbles with a twist of lemon.

death in the afternoon

a cocktail for the bohemians...yes, absinthe is used and it is legal again! what better way to celebrate this event than local pacifique absinthe and bubbles.

kir royale

you’ve maybe ordered and consumed a “kir royale”, but if it wasn’t produced with real crème de cassis—you got ripped off...ours consists of bubbles with a splash of trénel crème de cassis de bourgogne...

purple royale

clear creek distillery in portland makes a lovely, intense liqueur using loganberries (a hybrid of raspberries and blackberries)...we use it to make a distinctly northwest version of the kir royale...

the french 75

as in 75mm guns used by the french during world war one...seriously...sipped by officers just before battle...gin, fresh squeezed lemon juice (lightly sweetened) with the addition of bubbles...bang...

the sally bowles

it’s not a pre-requisite to have seen Cabaret, though it does give some insight into the drink...german ice wine is mixed with st. germain elderflower liqueur, a splash of sweetness and topped off with sparkling wine...divine decadence, indeed...

sea captain’s special

it seems a shame to sacrifice a bottle of champagne on the bow of newly minted seafaring vessels...

better to save the bottle, throw in some rye, a bit of pastis and enjoy...

oh, and because the water is sometimes rough, this one’s served on the rocks in a very stable glass...

d'artagnan

if you can come up with the names of the musketeers (without the aid of your internet ready cellular device), we just may buy you one...though if you can also come up with the author, then we might really have to buy you one...

by the way, if one were to spruce up a mimosa with some armagnac and grand marnier, one would ostensibly have themselves a d’artagnan...
